Clause 8C of the P&F Constitution reads as follows:

The Election of the Committee

- a. Any Member of the Parents and Friends Association shall be eligible for election as President or as a member of the Committee.
- b. The President and Ordinary Members of the Committee shall be elected by a majority ballot of all Members attending the Annual General Meeting.
- c. To be eligible for election as President or to the Committee, a candidate must lodge a written nomination with the Secretary at least 7 days prior to the Annual General Meeting at which they seek to be elected, which written nomination must:
 - be signed by such candidate, and
 - be seconded by a member of the Association, and
 - state the position (President or Ordinary Committee Member) sought.
- d. All elected at the Annual General Meeting shall hold office until the next Annual General Meeting. While it is desirable for the President not to serve for more than four years, there is no prescribed maximum term for any committee member.
